How much do solar panels cost?

As of 2026, the average cost of residential solar panels in the U.S. is between $15,000 and $25,000 before incentives. This typically translates to about $2.50 to $3.50 per watt of installed capacity (more on price per watt below). The total price depends on your system size, location, roof type, and installer.

Why do solar panels cost so much?

The size of your solar power system, measured in kilowatts (kW), is the most important factor affecting solar panel prices. Naturally, larger systems cost more than smaller ones, but they usually offer a lower cost per watt. Solar panels typically account for 12 - 18% of the total installation cost.

How much does a solar battery cost?

They store the energy accumulated from the solar panels. The price varies based on the installer, application and location. Batteries typically cost $12,000 to $22,000, according to the Department of Energy, although smaller capacity systems are available for less. In some cases, solar batteries may be more expensive than solar panels.

How much does a home solar system cost?

According to studies by the U.S. Department of Energy, the all-in cost of a home solar panel system is between $2.74 to $3.30 per watt. This figure includes the solar panels, the installation, and other expenses. Using these numbers, an average-sized 8-kilowatt residential solar system would cost between $21,900 - $26,400.

Solar panels cost $3.00 to $4.50 per watt installed on average, with homeowners spending about $3.75 per watt before factoring in available solar incentives.
