Hi all, i was writing an introduction text to introduce a company, and i was wondering if there is a difference between : "This company is specialized in" and "XXX is a company ...

"Specialized in" is the most common term, especially when talking academic fields. I just googled "specialized on" and did find examples, but to me they sound strange.

However if I would like to say that mortgage is my specialty but not my only knowledge of accountancy is it not better to say "specialized in mortgage" instead of "specializing in mortgage"?

Topic: Specified vs Specialized vs Specific vs Specified Copied from title. Cagey, moderator I want to use it as an antonym for generalized: "The generalized form of the algorithm ...

I noticed through surfing the internet that "specialized in" and "specialized with" are both used in English. I wonder how they are different in meaning and usage.

The only time I'd say "we are specialized ..." would be in a context such as "we are specialized manufacturers of small motors," where "specialized" functions as an adjective to qualify ...
